Spring is here and our Winter Reading Program has just finished. We want to thank all our sponsors who make our Reading Programs possible. A list of our Winter Reading Program sponsors is inside this newsletter. A Hammondspport Rotary grant has funded an Early Literacy Cruising cart, craft supplies, and other items to use with our Story Hour. This summer and fall we will have three arts workshops sponsored by The ARTS of the Southern Finger Lakes. Returning are Joan Belles for a basket workshop and Char DiGenaro for a Watemedia/ Collage workshop. Lauren Quattrini will be teaching how to make a needle-felted owl.

Coming up is our Pasta Dinner on April 22. This is a great way to support the Library Building Project and enjoy a delicious dinner with friends.

Barbara Radigan, Director

Pulteney Free Library: Making Progress

Spring Is In The Air!

The warm weather and sunshine are upon us and what better way to start the onset of spring than visiting with friends at a community event. Pulteney Free Library will be holding our 2nd Annual Pasta for Progress Dinner on April 22 from 4:30-7:00p at the Pulteney Fire Hall on Brown Rd. The cost of dinner is $10 for adults; $5 for children 5-12 years of age and under 5 is free. We will have 2 types of pasta and a gluten free option, 3 sauces, salad, bread, drinks and dessert. We will have an informational table set up for you to learn more about the building and see preliminary layouts. Raffles will be available so bring your dollar bills for a chance to win!

We are excited to see everyone and share our progress with the new building project. Although you do not see any physical evidence of a building being erected, there are many tasks being completed that will lead us to the ultimate goal of building a structure that meets the need of the whole community.

The Pulteney Free Library Board looks forward to seeing all of you on April 22. Thank you in advance for your continual support of this community treasure.

Wishing everyone well.
Liz Ryder, Board President
